

Riverside Children's Theatre

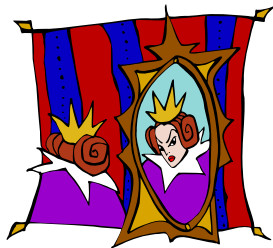

October 2007

Snow White and the Seven Dwarves

Auditions are this Tuesday, Oct 9th for K, 1, and 2. 3rd through 5th grades are auditioning on Wednesday, Oct. 10th. 6th through 8th grades are auditioning on Thursday, Oct. 11th. All auditions begin at Sierra Middle School at 6:15 pm – please be on time, with all paperwork filled out, and your check made out to RCT. Remember to bring your CD with you to turn in.

Callbacks (if needed) will be on Friday, October 12th, by invitation only. You will be notified, so please make sure all contact info is valid.

Production dates are January 18th, 19th, 25th and 26th, 2008. All families with children in the play will be responsible for selling 30 tickets, while all other RCT families will be responsible for selling 10 tickets.

WE'VE LINED UP A GREAT PRODUCTION TEAM:

JORDAN BECK: DIRECTOR

MARGARET HOAGLAND: MUSIC

CARISSA HOAGLAND: DANCE

Ticket tips!

Tickets make great stocking stuffers!

Is your school holding an auction? Donate a set of four tickets. Wrap it in a nice basket with dinner gift cards for a fun family outing!

Scout, school and church groups qualify for a discounted rate – ask us about group sales and backstage tours.

Do you have neighbors or relatives that might be interested in RCT for their children? Give a set of tickets and encourage them to check out the membership table.

TICKETS MAKE GREAT BIRTHDAY GIFTS, TOO!

Alumni News

Ramona's production of "The Birds" will be on Nov. 2nd and 3rd – RCT alums are Amelia Callahan and Savannah Chute.

Notre Dame's production of "Kiss Me, Kate" is also on Nov. 2nd and 3rd. RCT alum is Claire Gorder.

Poly's production of "The Elephant Man" is also held on Nov. 2nd and 3rd, as well as Nov. 9th and 10th. Come see RCT alum Elias Catling.

RCT website

Visit the website for updates:

www.riversidechildrenstheatre.org

Many thanks go to Rick Redak for updating the website over the past year.

The website also provides a link to our yahoo group - very important once the play starts, as supervision schedules are posted online.

Shed News

Once the play is up and running, the shed will be open on Friday nights and all day Saturday. More info to come, courtesy of Bill Catling, set builder extraordinaire!

COMMITTEE NOTES

Have you signed up for your three committees yet? Contact Kelly Silva if you still need to join a committee!

Mayor's Ball for the Performing Arts

RCT gamely purchased two tickets for the Mayor's Ball again this year. The overall theme was "Games People Play". RCT opted to play "Clue". Great food, good music and fun in the open air of White Park.! Make plans now to attend next year's event!

OUR SNACK BAR IS OPEN!

Enjoy a fun breakfast with your children before they head off to class - or a calming cup of coffee after they go to class. Our snack bar fundraiser made it possible to purchase the sound system used for Saturday School. Many thanks to Kim Sanchez for handling the initial weeks, and many thanks to all who have stepped forward to take charge for the rest of the year.

2007 8th grade parents: no, we haven't forgotten our grads! Look for more info to come on ways to celebrate last year's 8th grade class. Several ideas have been put on the table - you will be hearing from us, so keep asking for a meeting date and location. We need your input!

CHRISTMAS CAROLING!

KEEP A LOOKOUT FOR MORE INFO, AS RCT ONCE AGAIN FILLS THE AIR WITH SONG AND LAUGHTER AS WE SHARE THE GIFT OF MUSIC.

Send your news and notes to Mary Callahan, Parent Liaison. I can be reached at (951) 788-0521 or by email at kenny@softurkey.com